Old World Charm

Thanks to interior decorator Erin Martin, whose projects have graced the pages of Elle Decor and House Beautiful, the new North Block Hotel in Yountville is the talk of wine country. Formerly known as Hotel Luca, the cozy inn features 20 guest rooms with fireplaces and balconies; a lobby decked out with celestial charts, jute rugs, and sunburst mirrors; and an outdoor courtyard that is reminiscent of Tuscany and lined with potted lemon trees. Chef Richard Reddington of nearby Redd restaurant helms the on-site Italian eatery, Redd Wood, where wood-fired pizzas and handmade spaghetti are plated against a backdrop of irreverent finds, from buoys turned chandeliers to a mailbox that once belonged to the Mondavi clan. 6757 Washington St., Yountville, 707.944.8080, northblockhotel.com
